

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

VENUE

The Lisboa Congress Centre (CCL) is located by the river Tagus and the historical and cultural heritage of Belém, close to the city centre, in a prime area with a good transport links. It is a comfortable venue for the staging of congresses, conferences, business meetings, fairs, exhibitions and other events.

Address Praça das Indústrias, 1300-307 Lisbon, Portugal

Phone: (+351) 213 601 400/1 | Fax: (+351) 213 639 450

GPS 38°41'57.80"N | 9°10'57.00"W

HOW TO GET TO THE VENUE FROM LISBON AIRPORT

Lisbon international airport lies 7km to the north of the city centre, with direct Metro (underground) access and ample public transport options.

By car

For those driving to the venue, the CCL has two car parks, with a total capacity of 1 100 spaces. These car parks adapt their business hours to the events and there are several payment options. There is an hourly rate and a daily rate for congress participants and exhibitors, without entry or exit restrictions. There are additional car parks in the vicinity of CCL. More info on <http://www.parkopedia.pt>

Driving from the airport to the venue is easy. See below for details:

	via E1 and IP7	Details	about 20 min	18,9 km
	via E1	Details	about 25 min	12,3 km

By taxi

Transfer from the airport to the venue by taxi takes approximately 20 minutes, depending on the traffic. Taxis are always available in front of the airport building. Estimated travel cost from the airport to the venue should be less than EUR 20, assuming daytime travel under regular traffic conditions. It is also possible to purchase a taxi voucher at the Lisbon Tourism counters located in the airport’s arrivals hall (see details on www.visitlisboa.com/plan/tickets-offers/taxi-voucher).

By public transport

You can reach the city centre by taking the aerobus which leaves Lisbon airport every 20 minutes between 7.30 am and 11 pm and stops at many hotels until it reaches Cais do Sodré (downtown Lisbon, by the river). The following are alternative bus routes to take from Cais do Sodré to the conference venue:

- Bus stop R. Junqueira (Centro de congressos)  15E (tram)  714, 727, 732, 751, 756
- Bus stop Hospital Egas Moniz / Av. Índia  728

You can also take the Metro (underground) to get to Cais do Sodré from the airport building. Take the red Metro line to Alameda station and then change to the green line until Cais do Sodré (end of the line). From here, several buses and a tram go to the venue (see above).

If you are arriving at the Oriente train station, take the red Metro line to Alameda and then change to the green line running to Cais do Sodré. From here, several buses and a tram go to the venue (see above).

LISBON PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Lisbon Metro is modern, reliable and the quickest way to travel around the capital. There are four lines, covering 46 km of track and served by 55 stations. The Metro is open from 6.30 am to 1.00 am and trains usually run every six to nine minutes. Details here: www.metrolisboa.pt/eng/

PASSPORT AND VISA REQUIREMENTS

Participants from the European Union, from countries with agreement with Portugal, or in the Schengen area only need a national identity card to enter Portugal.
