

CV (August 2017)

Kerstin Stenius

Kerstin Stenius is part-time retired but affiliated as a researcher with the National Institute for Health and Welfare, Helsinki, Finland, the Centre for Social Research on Alcohol and Drugs, Stockholm University, Sweden and Nordic Welfare Centre, Helsinki, Finland.

Stenius has a doctorate in social work. She is assistant professor (docent) at Helsinki university) and has been guest professor 2007-2012 at Stockholm university and research manager at the Finnish National Institute for Health and Welfare. From 1983 until 2016 she was the Editor of Nordic Studies on Alcohol and Drugs. She has i.a. been president of the International Society for Addiction Journal Editors (ISAJE) and the Kettil Bruun Society for Social and Epidemiological Research on Alcohol, and is a member of the board of the International Confederation of ATOD Research Associations (ICARA).

Her research has focused on comparative and historical studies of treatment systems and their management, including conceptualizations of addiction problems, and on scientific publishing, especially from the point of view of non-English language researchers.