

Curriculum Vitae Ute Stiegel

Studied Law in Heidelberg (Germany). Master of Laws (LL.M.) at Uppsala University (Sweden). Ph.D. at the Max Planck Institute for Public International law in Heidelberg (Germany).

Worked for several years as a judge and prosecutor in Karlsruhe (Germany) and at the German Federal Ministry of Justice, Section "international criminal law".

Since 2001, employed by the European Commission in Brussels. For many year working in the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) on projects like the proposal to establish a European Public Prosecutor's Office. Since 2015 in the Directorate General for Migration and Home Affairs (DG HOME), currently Deputy Head of Unit in the Unit for "Organised Crime and Drugs Policy".