

Day 1 – 23 October
9.00–10.30	Plenary I: New frontiers for addiction science Chair: Toni Gual Confirmed speakers: Marilyn Huestis 'Future perspectives on the positive and negative effects of cannabinoids and health'
10.30–10.50	Coffee break
10.50–12.20	Main sessions: 'Opioid-related deaths: current and emerging lessons from epidemiology, pharmacology, and programmes for interventions', co-produced by SSA 'Emerging issues in the study of behavioral addictions', co-produced by the International Society for the Study of Behavioral Addictions 5 structured sessions, 1 workshop, 4 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
12.20–13.20	Lunch
13.20–14.50	Main session: 'The future of Hep C among people who inject drugs', co-produced by INSHU 5 structured sessions, 1 workshop, 5 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
14.50–15.00	Break
15.00–16.30	Main session: 'Progress in alcohol research and treatment', co-produced by EUFAS 9 structured sessions, 2 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
16.30–16.50	Coffee break
16.50–18.20	Main session: 'An epidemiological overview of New Psychoactive Substances (NPS) use in Europe, towards a public health approach' 7 structured sessions, 3 workshops, 3 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
18.20–18.30	Break
18.30–19.30	Big debate: 'Will changes in cannabis policy result in greater costs or greater benefits?' Moderator Florence Ranson Confirmed speakers: Laura d'Arrigo, Jennifer Price, Kevin Sabet, Wayne Hall 1 workshop, 5 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
19.30–21.30	Official opening and welcome cocktail

Day 2 – 24 October
9.00–10.30	Plenary II: Learning from the past to meet the challenges of the future Chair: Eilish Gilvarry Confirmed speakers: Karl Lund 'Future perspectives for reducing tobacco related harm – what have we learnt?', Johanna Gripenberg 'The future of prevention science'
10.30–10.50	Coffee break
10.50–12.20	Main session: 'Using evidence to better respond to drug problems: a call for action', co-produced by The Lancet 6 structured sessions, 2 workshops, 3 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
12.20–13.20	Lunch
13.20–14.50	Main session: 'Post-marketing prescription drug mosaic surveillance: lessons from the past applied to the future', co-produced by ISSDP 5 structured sessions, 1 workshop, 6 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
14.50–15.00	Break
15.00–16.30	Main session: 'Global changes in cannabis products' 7 structured sessions, 1 workshop, 3 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
16.30–16.50	Coffee break
16.50–18.20	Main session: 'European Drug Emergency Network Plus (Euro-DEN Plus): trends and harms related to recreational drugs, prescription medicines and new psychoactive substances' 7 structured sessions, 1 workshop, 5 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
18.20–18.30	Break
18.30–19.30	Big debate: 'Industry friend or foe? Can industry contribute to better addiction science, policy, and actions?' Moderator Florence Ranson Confirmed speakers: Henrietta Bowden-Jones, Axel Klein, Niamh Fitzgerald 3 structured sessions, 1 workshop, 4 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
19.30–21.30	Networking buffet dinner

Lisbon Addictions 2019 'The future of addictions: new frontiers for policy, practice and science'

Draft programme outline

Day 3 – 25 October

9.00–10.30	Plenary III: Horizons in addiction science Chair: tba Confirmed speakers: Olivier George 'Implications for the future of our developing understanding of addictive processes and future therapeutic options', Sharon Walsh 'Future perspectives for new formulations for medications for opioid use disorder: hopes and fears' 1 structured session, 1 workshop, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
10.30–10.45	Coffee break
10.45–12.15	Big debate: 'How do we get greater involvement of civil society and affected communities in shaping addiction research, policies and practice?' Moderator Florence Ranson Confirmed speakers: Mariann Skar 3 structured sessions, 1 workshop, 7 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours
12.15–12.30	Coffee break
12.30–13.30	3 structured sessions, 4 workshops, 5 oral presentation sessions, short communication sessions, poster guided tours Closing session Chairs: Paul Griffiths and Manuel Cardoso Confirmed speakers: Sir John Strang 'Preventing deaths from heroin overdose: better science, fuller understanding, greater impact', Angela Morelli 'Future perspectives on designing information for impact and decision-making'