How to get to the venue from Lisbon airport

Lisbon international airport lies 7km to the north of the city centre, with direct Metro (underground) access and ample public transport options.

By car

For those driving to the venue, the CCL has two car parks, with a total capacity of 1 100 spaces. These car parks adapt their business hours to the events and there are several payment options. There is an hourly rate and a daily rate for congress participants and exhibitors, without entry or exit restrictions. There are additional car parks in the vicinity of CCL. More info on <http://www.parkopedia.pt>

See the details on driving from the airport to the venue:

| 🚗 | via E1 and IP7 | Details | about 20 min | 18.9 km |
| 🚗 | via E1 | Details | about 25 min | 12.3 km |

By taxi

Transfer from the airport to the venue by taxi takes approximately 20 minutes, depending on the traffic. Taxis are always available in front of the airport building. Estimated travel cost from the airport to the venue should be less than EUR 20, assuming daytime travel under regular traffic conditions. It is also possible to purchase a taxi voucher at the Lisbon Tourism counters located in the airport’s arrivals hall (details here: www.visitlisboa.com/plan/tickets-offers/taxi-voucher). Other transport options available via mobile apps (such as Uber) are also available in Lisbon.

By public transport

Bus

You can reach the city centre by taking the aerobus which leaves Lisbon airport every 20 minutes between 7.30 am and 11 pm. The aerobus stops at many hotels until it reaches Cais do Sodré (downtown Lisbon, by the river).
